

Reflections Following the RACE To Be Human Viewing and Discussion

Were there specific topics discussed in the film that resonated with you? Why?

Which stories did you most identify with? Why?

What was the biggest takeaway for you from the film, RACE to Be Human?

Write down any small or large changes that you are thinking of making, such as improving ways to communicate with others, building relationships, and engaging in your community spaces.

After watching RACE to Be Human, are there questions you still have that weren't answered by the film? What would you like to learn more about, and how could you do so?